SELECTION

- The Nasdaq CTA Emerging Markets Internet & E-commerce Index is designed to track the performance of emerging market companies involved in the internet and e-commerce industries
- The companies are selected based on classification determined by the Consumer Technology Association (CTA)
- Eligible security types generally include common stocks, ordinary shares, and depositary receipts
- Securities' issuers must have at least 50% of their revenue derived from countries in the Nasdaq Emerging Markets Index (NQEM), South Korea, Greece, Hong Kong, or any other country that is not a part of the Nasdaq Developed Markets Index (NQDM), as determined by CTA
- Securities' issuers must be classified as companies whose primary business includes internet retail commerce, internet-related services, internet software, or internet search engine, and must have at least 50% of their revenue derived from internet or e-commerce related activities, as determined by CTA
- Minimum free float market capitalization of $1 billion
- Average Daily Dollar Trading Volume in the last 6 months of at least $5 million for new additions, and $3.5 million for existing constituents
- The top 50 securities by free float market capitalization are included in the Index

WEIGHTING SCHEME

- The index is free float market cap-weighted with a single security cap of 8% for the top five constituents. All remaining companies are capped at 4%

REBALANCING

- The index follows a semi-annual rebalance schedule. Adjustments are made on the third Friday in March and September

Investing involves risk, including the possible loss of principal. The investable universe of companies in which EWEB may invest may be limited. The companies in which the Fund invests may be subject to rapid changes in technology, intense competition, rapid obsolescence of products and services, loss of intellectual property protections, evolving industry standards and frequent new product productions, and changes in business cycles and government regulation.

International investments may involve risk of capital loss from unfavorable fluctuation in currency values, from differences in generally accepted accounting principles or from social, economic or political instability in other nations. Emerging markets involve heightened risks related to the same factors as well as increased volatility and lower trading volume. EWEB is non-diversified.

Shares of ETFs are bought and sold at market price (not NAV) and are not individually redeemed from the Fund. Brokerage commissions will reduce returns. Indices are unmanaged and do not include the effect of fees, expenses or sales charges. One cannot invest directly in an index.
